

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTORS

Ginger Blodgett Ginger works in a variety of mediums and has enjoyed teaching art to all ages over the past sixteen years in private schools and her home. She lives in the Tri-City area and has raised six children who all still like her.

Michael Gorman Mike has taught in the Richland School District for sixteen years. He is also an arts and crafts leader for 4-H groups. He works in various mediums, always coming up with interesting projects.

Tracy Horner Tracy has a self-proclaimed love for graphic form which, along with her background in engineering, lets her written words become art rather than just letters of the alphabet. For as long as she can remember Tracy has spent her allowance on ink and fancy pens.

Gail Roadhouse Gail was raised in a suburb of Chicago with the Art Institute for a babysitter. She is a full-time Painting Therapist, and part-time painting instructor. She started painting in her high chair as a baby. She paints everyday now, out of the high chair.

Liz Braich Liz has taught and explored after school art club at Christ the King School for the past 8 years. She is familiar with a variety of mediums and she also teaches at Crown Jewel Beads in Kennewick

Michael Carlson Mike Carlson has been inspired by photography ever since working on the yearbook staff in high school. He currently teaches photography at River's Edge High and his photos have been shown at WSU, the Parkside Gallery, and in the Allied Arts Summer Showcase.

Joyce Anderson Joyce is an award-winning watercolorist who comes to us from Walla Walla. She has taught art classes to children and adults since 1982. Joyce's classes are always original, fun and extremely creative.

CHILDREN'S ART EXHIBIT: Follow The Mosaic Fish Path

Your Work on Exhibit: August 16-26 Reception: Sunday, August 21, 1 – 3 pm

SHOW YOUR WORK TO FRIENDS AND FAMILY IN A REAL ART EXHIBIT!

After you have created work in a class, we encourage you to leave a special piece for this Art Exhibit - or bring one back to the Gallery August 3 through 7 during regular Gallery hours.

There will be a signature form and receipt for work left for the show.

After the Exhibit, your work should be picked up and taken home August 27 through September 2.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE TO PARENTS:

Cancellation & Refunds: You will receive confirmation of your children's class registration by e-mail or postcard. Refunds will be granted only if the session is cancelled or Allied Arts finds another child to fill your child's place.

Attendance & Participation: Class attendance and participation is limited only to those registered for the class. Due to space and insurance limitations, presence by non-participants will be handled on an exception basis, and must be pre-approved by the Children's Workshop Chair.

Please drop off your children no more than five minutes before class is scheduled to begin and pick them up promptly after class. This allows preparation time for the Instructor for the next class, and ensures the safety of your children.

No Food please. Our classes are not set up to accommodate birthday parties, etc. We also have some children with severe allergies.

Access to the classroom is at the southwest side of the Gallery building -

Just Follow the Mosaic Fish Path to the door.
